

Movie Night!

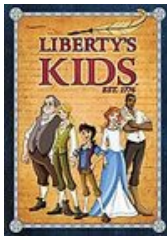

November 2009

The Encampment Store will be sponsoring "Movie Nights" on Fridays in November at 7 p.m. in the park theater. Refreshments will be available for purchase and will include a variety of snacks and candy and bottled water. Admission to movie is free!

November 6
Johnny Tremain
Rated: G
Length: 81 minutes

–Based on the classic novel by Esther Forbes - the heartwarming story of a silversmith's apprentice who joins the cause of liberty when Boston is subjected to British tyranny.

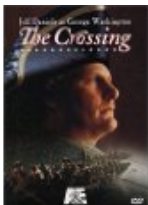

November 13
Liberty's Kids - four episodes, "Lafayette Arrives", "The Hessians Are Coming", "Valley Forge", and "Allies at Last"
Rated: G
Total Length: 92 minutes

– James and Sarah, two teens with opposite views of the Revolution, are witnesses to the most important events of the war. Join them in 1777 & 1778 as meet the Marquis de Lafayette, watch the Continental army train at Valley Forge and learn of a new alliance that will change the course of the war.

November 20
1776 - the musical
Rated: PG -for language
Total Length: 166 minutes -there will be an intermission

– Adapted from the hit Broadway Musical –see our founding fathers as never before – raucously debating the issue of independence, bashing each other's egos and then breaking out into musical numbers!

November 27
The Crossing
Rated: Not Rated - this movie contains some naughty language and instances of violence equivalent to PG or PG-13.
Length: 89 minutes

– The daring Christmas Day crossing of the frozen Delaware and the attack on Trenton saved the cause of American independence. Jeff Daniels stars as General George Washington in a movie about our nation's darkest hour and greatest triumph.