

Naming of Buildings and Improvements on District Property

Buildings and improvements on district property shall be given names which are indicative of the area in which they are located and not named after individuals or groups.