

Reporting Student Progress

The school year shall be divided into report periods. Parents shall receive a written report of student progress at the conclusion of each report period. At the elementary and middle school levels, individual parent-teacher conferences will be held in conjunction with designated reports to discuss student progress. Interim reports of student progress will be issued to parents between report periods to communicate potential academic failure or other areas(s) of particular concern.