

President – Inability to Complete Term

If the President is unable to complete his or her term, the Vice-President shall perform all duties imposed on the President until such time as the Board elects a successor pursuant to Board Operating Procedures.