

Remuneration for Extra Duty Responsibility

Appointment and remuneration for all coaches, club advisors, and faculty sponsors is determined by, and is subject to review by, the Board. All salary and stipend payments shall be processed through the Personnel and Business Offices in accordance with normal District procedures. No other coaches, advisors, or sponsors can be provided through private sources or booster organizations.

Evaluation of Extra Duty Responsibilities

The administrator(s) responsible for evaluating extra duty responsibilities shall apply the instrument designated as Tredyffrin/Easttown School District Co-Curricular Appraisal Form in a systematic, comprehensive, professional manner. The comprehensiveness, substance, rigor, and acuity expected shall be comparable to that for regular instructional and administrative positions. Expectations for coaches are contained in the Coaches Handbook. Each coach will be given a copy and expected to comply with its regulations.
