

Expanded Access to In-Person Instruction

---

- Current attendance patterns allow for expanded in-person capacity while maintaining 6 feet of social distance
- Working with classroom teachers, school counselors and school student support teams to identify hybrid or virtual students who may benefit from additional days of in-person instruction
- School personnel will be reaching out to these families