

The Pennsylvania School for Excellence in the Agricultural Sciences (PSEAS)

*Formerly known as the PA Governor's School for the Agricultural Sciences agsci.psu.edu/school-for-excellence

Program Dates: July 11th - August 6th, 2021

The Pennsylvania School for Excellence in the Agricultural Sciences is a four-week residential summer program held primarily at University Park campus for academically talented and gifted high school rising seniors from throughout Pennsylvania.

This program hosts a variety of opportunities to learn more about Penn State and Agricultural Sciences, through classes, labs, workshops, field trips and other activities.

Sponsored by Penn State College of Agricultural Sciences, full scholarships are available, making this program free to participants.

Who Can Apply?

- Pennsylvania Resident
- Current High School Junior
- Students with an interest in the food, agricultural, and natural resource sciences

Application Process

- Introduction Narrative
- Extracurricular Resume
- Science Teacher Reference
- Guidance Counselor Reference
- Official Transcript
- Pennsylvania Youth Institute Paper

Schedule and Core Courses

- Six core classes
- Daily labs
- Guest Lectures
- Workshops to explore Ag Sciences

*The PSEAS Scholarship covers tuition, room, board, instructional materials and program activities for all participants. Families are responsible for transportation to and from the program and pocket money. Students must remain in residence for the full four-week program, including weekends. Scholars must attend all classes, labs, and activities.

PSEAS cannot provide special facilities or alter schedules for formal athletic training, intensive music study or other commitments unrelated to the program.

For more information, visit our website: agsci.psu.edu/school-for-excellence

Or contact:

Jenneth R. Layaou, Director;
pseas@psu.edu / 814-867-0383
101 Ag Administration Building,
University Park, PA 16801

Applications Open: November 1st

Application Deadline: February 26th

Decisions Announced March 26th

