Finding Your Fit

Factors to consider:

- Close or far?
- 2 or 4 year?
- Big or small?
- City or suburbs?
- Availability of support services?
- Availability of career resources?
- Housing options?
- Majors?
- Activities?
- Cost? (tuition and room & board)

Find a personal fit, academic fit, and financial fit.

Summer!

- A Meaningful Summer
(authenticity/genuine/interest)

Fall

- Activities outside of the classroom
- Testing plan
- College visits
- College Admissions Evening

Winter

- Individual meetings with your counselor
- Post High School Planning Meeting

Spring of Junior Year

- Visit campuses
- Attend college fairs
- Attend Career & Military Days
- Financial Aid Evening
- Letters of Recommendation
- NCAA
- College Essay Writing Workshop

Characteristics that Count

When writing letters of recommendations for summer programs, internships, volunteer opportunities, and college applications, teachers and counselors are often asked to rate students on the following qualities:

- Academic Achievement
 - Intellectual Promise
 - Quality of Writing
 - Creative Thought
- Productive Discussion
 - Faculty Respect
 - Disciplined Habits
 - Maturity
 - Motivation
 - Leadership
 - Integrity
- Reaction to Setbacks
- Concern for Others
 - Self-Confidence
 - Initiative

A row of smooth, dark stones is arranged in a line on a highly reflective surface, likely water. The stones are dark and smooth, with their reflections clearly visible below them. The background is a soft, hazy sunset or sunrise, with a warm orange and yellow glow near the horizon. The text "Thanks for Attending!" is overlaid in the center of the image in a white, sans-serif font.
