

Join the PA Inclusion Collective and the PEAL Center for our 3-part series

From Barriers to Belonging: The Power of Peers in Inclusive Schools

Dr. Erik Carter

Dr. Erik Carter, the Luther Sweet Endowed Chair in Disabilities at Baylor University, is a leading expert on strategies for supporting inclusion and belonging in schools, workplaces, and congregations for children and adults with disabilities. Read more about his work at www.erikwcarter.com/writing

All sessions will be held virtually from 6-8 p.m. EST

FEB 6, 2024

Creating Communities of Belonging for Students with Disabilities

FEB 13, 2024

Peer Support Arrangements: Supporting Relationships and Learning in Inclusive Classrooms

FEB 20, 2024

Peer Networks: Fostering Friendships Beyond the Classroom

PA Inclusion Collective Members:

Special Education Alliance of Cheltenham, The Committee for Special Education for Lower Merion School district, The Methacton Special Education Alliance, North Penn Parents Special Education Alliance, The Pottsgrove Village, Radnor Committee for Special Education, BUILD T/E, Special Education Advisory Council of Upper Dublin

LEARN MORE

www.pealcenter.org/from-barriers-to-belonging

REGISTER

PEAL promotes inclusion and access to education and healthcare, and empowers families and young adults across Pennsylvania with support of funding from federal and state partners, nonprofit organizations and donors. To learn more about our funders and donors, please visit the first page of our website www.pealcenter.org or call 866-950-1040